Hi, Susan.

We're having a wonderful time in Australia. We arrived in Melbourne last week and stayed there for two days. On the first day, we went to Royal Botanic Gardens. Visiting Botanic Gardens is the best free thing to do in Melbourne. There are more than 8,500 species of plants here. In the summer, there are also live performances in the Gardens. On the next day, we visited Royal Exhibition building. It's one of the oldest places in Melbourne. We arrived in Sydney yesterday morning. The city was so nice in the sunshine. We sat in a café by the river and had lunch. Sydney is more exciting than Melbourne, but it is noisier and more expensive. Melbourne is smaller, but it has a lot of lovely old buildings and great restaurants. That's why I prefer Melbourne.

Wish you were here.

Jennifer.

Alice: Hi, Simon. You went to Japan last year, right?

Simon: Yes, I did. I visited Tokyo. It's my favorite city. Tokyo is the largest megacity in the world. It has a total population of 35 million people, so it's always crowded.

Alice: That's interesting. I'm going to travel to Tokyo next year. When should I go?

Simon: You should visit Tokyo in spring. The most beautiful time of year is spring, when the cherry trees are in full blossom. You shouldn't go there in the summer because it's hot and humid.

Alice: Should I rent a car when I am in Tokyo?

Simon: No, I think you should take the subway. It's safer and faster.

Alice: Oh, good. And what places should I visit?

Simon: Well, you should visit Tokyo National Museum. It's the oldest museum in Japan, and it's also one of the most traditional places. You can buy really nice postcards there.

Alice: OK. Thanks a lot for your advice.

Simon: You're welcome.
