Dear Aunt May,

This is Peter. I am writing this letter to thank you for taking me to the central park yesterday. I enjoyed spending time with you a lot. It was very kind of you to buy me a lot of delicious food. I really like the tuna sandwich.

I have just returned to my home from school. I made some new friends at my Art class. They are Richard, Phoebe, and Julie. We drew pictures together. We drew the circus with clowns, elephants, and lions. It was just like the place you took me to yesterday. I invite them to my house to watch some movies and play games tonight. My mom told me to finish my homework first, and I have a lot of homework today. I should start doing them now. Hope you are well and see you this weekend!

Your nephew,
Peter

To: Huy

From: Jane

Subject: Invitation

Hi Huy,

Sorry I didn't write to you sooner. My exams are coming next week and I have to study for two or three hours every evening.

Did I tell you that next Friday is my birthday? I want to invite you to my birthday party. The party is at 5 p.m. at my house in New York. There are a lot of fun activities. I can ask my mom to pick you up if you like. Do you remember Alicia and Roberto? They are going too, so it will be fun. Please send me a reply if you could come.

That's all for now.

See you soon.

Jane

Dear Evan,

Thanks for your letter. I moved to this school 2 weeks ago. I needed some time to prepare for my new classes, so I could not write to you earlier. And about our new school, there are two four-story buildings with a large yard. There are different plants and flowers there. There are many students from USA, England, and even Vietnam. My class is a lovely room on the 2nd floor of the first building. I like it so much because I can see the yard and the garden. If you want, I will take pictures for you. I have so many things to tell you. How have you been? Please write to me soon.

Best,

Margaret

38. Why does Margaret write to Evan?
