III. READING COMPREHENSION:

Read the following passage. Decide if the statements that follow it are True or False, and choose the correct answer (A, B, C or D) for the questions.

In many years, Americans are more relaxed than British people, but they are more careful with their clothes. At home, or on holiday, most Americans wear informal or sporty clothes. But when they go out in the evening, they like to look elegant. In good hotels and restaurants, men have to wear jackets and ties, and women wear pretty clothes and smart hairstyles.

It is difficult to say exactly what people wear informal or formal clothes in Britain and in the United States because everyone is different. If you are not sure what to wear, watch what other people do and then do the same.

25. Americans are more relaxed, so they don't care about their clothes. _____
