V. READING (2 points)

A. Read Jian's email and choose the best option (A, B, C or D) for each of the following questions.

Hi Sammy!

Thanks for your email. We're celebrating Chinese New Year at the moment. We celebrate it in the first month of spring. It's a very important festival for Chinese people. Before the celebrations, we clean our house. This is a tradition – we wipe away all the bad things. On New Year's Eve, we have a special meal with our family. We eat traditional food and watch fireworks at midnight. We also wear red clothes. Red means fire, so we believe that our red clothes help chase away bad spirits. When we wake up on New Year's Day, we always find red envelopes in our beds. There is money in them – they're presents from our parents and grandparents. We watch dragon dances, too. They're my favorite part of the festival. I love Chinese New Year, because I like all the traditions and I like being with my family.

Write to me about one of your festivals.

Take care.

Jian

GOLOWAN FESTIVAL

Golowan festival is one of the biggest (38) traditional festivals in Europe. Golowan means 'midsummer' in Cornish, the old language of Cornwall. 'Midsummer' is the longest day of the year and people celebrate 'midsummer' in many countries. The festival lasts for ten days. The celebrations begin with a big (39) fireworks show and lots of different music events. People (40) decorate the streets with flags in different colors. School students make amazing animals out of paper. There aren't any cars and buses on the streets in the town center. Hundreds of people dress up in beautiful (41) costumes and walk along the street in a big (42) parade. Musicians play guitars and drums while people dance. Visitors can also try Cornish food at the food stands.
