Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the following questions from 31 to 36.

E-commerce, or buying and selling things on the internet, is becoming more and more common. The majority of the stores that you can find in towns and cities throughout the country also have an internet outlet. However, some stores are only available online.

E-commerce provides a lot of benefits. The first advantage is convenience. Customers can shop at any time of the day from anywhere with an internet connection. They can look through different products and compare prices with a few clicks of the mouse or taps on their phone. Another advantage of e-commerce is the wide range of options available. In a traditional store, you are limited to the products that are available in that store. However, with e-commerce, you can buy products from all over the world.

However, e-commerce also has some disadvantages. Firstly, it can be unsafe. If customers enter personal information like credit card numbers on an unsafe website, hackers can steal it. Another disadvantage is that customers cannot touch or try out the product before buying it, so it may leave them feeling unsatisfied. The cost of shipping and delays in delivery may be another disadvantage for some shoppers.
