Students today have many educational choices and some students are leaving their country to study. There are four million international students and this is increasing every year. Of course, lots of international students travel to America, Canada, Britain and Australia. But students aren't just going to English-speaking countries. More than 200 000 international students are studying in China today. They are looking for good universities with an interesting social life.

Students can also get an international education in their home country. There are over 160 international campuses all over the world and this number is growing. Students at these campuses have a Western-style education. Some people think this is a bad thing because later, the students often leave their home countries and go overseas to work.

Other people say there are lots of advantages to an international education. International students leave universities with up-to-date ideas and take this knowledge back to their countries. Students also learn the language and culture of these countries.

International education is changing universities too. Now they are becoming more diverse, with students from all over the world. International students bring new ideas and new ways of looking at the world.

VISIT THE EDINBURGH FESTIVAL!

Every year, thousands of people come to Edinburgh, the capital city of Scotland, to be part of the Edinburgh Festival. For three weeks every August and September the city is filled with actors and artists from all over the world. They come to Edinburgh for the biggest arts festival in Britain. During this time the streets of the city are alive with music and dance from early morning until late at night. You can even see artists painting pictures on the streets. One of the best parts of the Festival is the 'Fringe', where students do comedy shows in small halls and cafés.

Tens of thousands of tourists come to the Festival to see new films and plays and hear music played by famous musicians. This year, you can see over five hundred performances with actors from more than forty countries.

The tickets for these performances are quite cheap and it is usually easier to see your favourite star in Edinburgh than it is in London. So come to Edinburgh next summer, but remember it can be difficult to find a room, so why not book your hotel now!

- 29. The Edinburgh Festival is a month long.
