Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the best answer to each of the following from 23-30

Lifelong learning is the ongoing process of acquiring new knowledge and skills throughout a person's life. This makes them significantly adaptable to the needs of modern workplaces. Lifelong learners carry on their learning and personal development long after they have completed their formal education. In today's world, lifelong learning is more important than ever.

The importance of lifelong learning in the modern world is enormous. Today's job market is dynamic and fast-paced, so skills become outdated quickly. To compete for the best career opportunities, individuals must continuously develop themselves. It is considered that lifelong learning enhances the development of important skills and can help individuals to improve hard skills like language and soft skills, such as empathy.

In addition, lifelong learning has significant benefits outside of the workplace. It can enable individuals to achieve personal fulfillment and satisfaction by allowing them to pursue their passions. It can also improve brain function and broaden their horizons by making them more open-minded. By continually learning and growing, they can develop their critical thinking skills and gain new insights into the world.

Thanks to the Internet and digital media, engaging in lifelong learning has never been easier with online courses, webinars and workshops available on all kinds of topics. Many of the world's best educational institutions, such as Harvard, MIT, and Stanford, also offer a variety of online courses, providing access to high-quality education to people around the world. Online resources allow learners to acquire knowledge at their own pace, at a time and at a place that suits them. In an ever-changing modern world, continuous personal development has become a crucial part of life. For lifelong learners, learning is not only a process but also a lifestyle choice. By committing to this approach, we can stay relevant in the workforce, follow our passions, and improve the overall quality of our lives.

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the best answer to each of the following questions from 31 to 40.

THE ROLE OF MASS MEDIA IN MODERN SOCIETY

Mass media refers to a range of communication channels, including television, radio, newspapers, magazines, and digital platforms, that reach a large audience. Over the past century, mass media has evolved dramatically, shifting from print and broadcast formats to the digital and social media platforms that dominate today. This evolution has had a profound impact on how information is disseminated, consumed, and perceived by the public.

One of the most significant changes brought by mass media is the speed at which news is delivered. In the past, people had to wait for the morning newspaper or evening news broadcast to get updates on current events. Today, thanks to the internet and smartphones, information can be shared almost instantaneously across the globe. This has led to a more connected world, but it also raises concerns about the accuracy and reliability of information, as rumors and fake news can spread just as quickly.

Another important role of mass media is its ability to shape public opinion. Through news coverage, advertising, and entertainment, media outlets have the power to influence people's thoughts, behaviors, and even political views. For instance, the portrayal of certain social issues or political figures can shape public perception, sometimes leading to bias or misinterpretation. Despite this, mass media remains a crucial tool for raising awareness about global issues, such as climate change, human rights, and health crises.

As digital platforms become more prevalent, the way people interact with media is also changing. Traditional media outlets are now adapting to the digital age by creating online versions of their content, while social media has allowed for more user-generated content. This shift has democratized the media landscape, giving individuals the ability to share their views with a broader audience. However, it has also led to concerns about privacy, data security, and the spread of misinformation.

Question 31. Where would the following sentence best fit in the passage?

"However, this shift has also contributed to the rapid spread of false information."

- A. After the first sentence of paragraph 2 B. After the last sentence of paragraph 2
C. After the second sentence of paragraph 3 D. After the last sentence of paragraph 4

Question 32. What does the word "disseminated" in paragraph 1 mean?

- A. collected B. published C. distributed D. created

Question 33. What does "This" in paragraph 2 refer to?

- A. the evolution of print and broadcast formats B. the need for morning newspapers
C. the speed of modern news delivery D. the role of smartphones in communication

Question 34. According to the passage, how has mass media changed the way people receive news?

- A. People only get news from newspapers and television.
B. Information is now shared quickly and globally.

C. Mass media has stopped influencing public opinion.

D. News updates are only available at specific times.

Question 35. What is the main idea of the passage?

A. Mass media has led to more entertainment and advertising.

B. The evolution of mass media has significantly impacted communication and society.

C. Traditional media remains the most trusted source of information.

D. Social media is replacing all forms of traditional media.

Question 36. Which of the following best paraphrases the sentence "Mass media has the power to influence people's thoughts, behaviors, and even political views." from paragraph 3?

A. Mass media encourages people to express their thoughts and political beliefs freely.

B. Media outlets have a significant impact on how people think, act, and perceive politics.

C. People's political views are shaped by their behaviors and thoughts.

D. Influencing thoughts, behaviors, and political views is not a role of mass media.

Question 37. What is the opposite of "instantaneously" as used in paragraph 2?

A. gradually

B. simultaneously

C. promptly

D. immediately

Question 38. Which of the following is NOT mentioned as a concern related to modern mass media?

A. Privacy and data security

B. The spread of misinformation

C. Lack of access to digital platforms

D. Bias and manipulation in news coverage

Question 39. What can be inferred about the role of social media in modern mass media from the passage?

A. Social media has completely replaced traditional media outlets.

B. Social media has made it easier for individuals to share information widely.

C. People only use social media for entertainment, not for news.

D. Traditional media does not use social media to reach audiences.

Question 40. Which of the following best summarizes the passage?

A. Mass media, including traditional and digital platforms, has changed communication, shaping public opinion and presenting new challenges such as misinformation.

B. Only digital platforms are reliable sources of information in the modern world.

C. The traditional forms of mass media are still dominant despite the rise of social media.

D. Mass media is no longer relevant in the age of social media and digital communication.
