DÀNH CHO GIÁO VIÊN (TRANSCRIPT & KEY)

Audio Script

“Many students enjoy doing community service. Last month, students at Green Valley School did different activities to help their community. Some students went to the local orphanage. They donated books and clothes to the children. Other students picked up litter around the school and in the park. This activity helps keep our environment clean. A group of students also visited the nursing home. They played board games with the elderly and made them very happy. Community service brings happiness to both volunteers and the people they help. So why not join a community service project and make a difference?”
