Read the review of a film and choose the best answer for each question. (5 questions)The Martian

I'm not a fan of science fiction, so can you imagine how I felt when my friends choose Screen 2 on the movie theater website? It was showing this film. Much better choices for me were Screen 1, with a film about the early days of America, Screen 3, which was showing a comedy, or Screen 4, which had a film about the first landing on the Moon.

But, I hear you say, the Screen 4 film was about science. Yes, but science fact. And that is why, in the end, I really liked The Martian because you don't see any green men with two heads. Instead, you learn things from the astronaut, like how to make oxygen and how to grow plants with no soil. We find out how to live on a desert planet with no water and low gravity using the knowledge and technology which we already have.

The astronaut is left on Mars when his spaceship takes off suddenly because a huge storm is coming. He is caught in the storm and loses communication with the ship, so they think he is dead. He nearly dies in several accidents, but a spaceship comes to rescue him after nearly 600 days.

I loved the film, because it wasn't about a man who is frightened all the time and worried about his future. In many ways, it is really a comedy, and you know, and the astronaut knows, from his funny lines when things go wrong, that everything will be all right in the end.
