The fast pace of modern day family life can make it easy to forget that simply just spending time with our children is really important. Our time is one of the greatest things we can give them. There are some reasons why you should make quality time a priority:

Firstly, spending time together builds children's self-esteem. Children who spend time with their parents participating in activities together build a positive sense of self-worth. When children feel that they are valued by their parents, they feel more positive about themselves. Family activities don't have to be expensive trips out to be meaningful, the important part is just being together. You could go for a bike ride or play a game together.

Families who share everyday activities together form strong, emotional bonds. Studies have found that families who enjoy group activities together share a stronger emotional bond as well as an ability to adapt well to situations as a family. You could share your favourite hobbies, sports, books, movies or other favourite activities.

When you spend time with your children, you are developing an environment for open communication. Good communication is important for your children to feel comfortable with talking about anything. Asking how their day has gone can make a big difference.

Children learn by example. If you are setting a good example for them by spending quality time together, they are more likely to adopt those behaviours in other relationships in their lives. Simple things like playing games together will help them understand more about interacting with others as well as teach them things like sharing and kindness.
