1 - 3

Listen and draw lines. There is one example.

Character 1: Look at this photograph. I took it at the beach yesterday. It is good, isn't it?

Character 2: Yes, it is. It's excellent, but I don't know all the people in it.

Character 1: Oh, don't you? Well, you know Emma. Look, there she is sitting on the beach.

Character 2: Is she building the sandcastle with the boy?

Character 1: Yes. You're right!

Can you see the example? Now you listen and draw lines.

1.

Character 2: The weather was nice, wasn't it?

Character 1: Yes. It was windy yesterday. My friend, Sarah, likes flying a kite. Sarah and her friend played with their kites happily.

Character 2: That was great!

2.

Character 2: So who is the boy playing volleyball? He is hitting the ball very hard.

Character 1: Yes. That's Harry. He is very good at hitting the ball.

Character 2: Who was the winner yesterday?

Character 1: I guess that was him.

3.

Character 2: Oh, and this one. I see a boy swimming in the ocean.

Character 1: That is my friend, Fred.

Character 2: Is he good at swimming?

Character 1: Yes, he is. His favorite subject is P.E., especially swimming.

Character 2: Nice. They seemed to have a good time that day.

4 - 6

Listen and match. There is one example.

Character: Hey, Lily. Where were you last night?

Lily: I was at the movie theater.

Character: How was the movie?

Lily: It was scary.

Can you see the example? Now you listen and match.

1.

Lucy: Christmas time is coming. I'm waiting for it.

Character: What do people do to celebrate Christmas in your country?

Lucy: They put up a Christmas tree. How about you?

Character: Oh, the children in my country always wait to get presents from Santa Claus.

Lucy: That's great! And me too.

2.

Character 1: Why are you still standing here, Andy? It's time for class.

Andy: It's too noisy here. I can't hear the bell.

Character 1: What time does your English class start?

Andy: It starts at eight o'clock.

Character 1: OK. Run fast or you can be late.

3.

Character: What did you do last weekend, David?

David: I went fishing with my uncle.

Character: Oh. Did you go to the river?

David: No. We didn't go to the river. We went to the beach. Then we went on a big boat and went out to sea to go fishing.

Character: Really? That sounds great!

David: Yes. I had a lot of fun.

7 - 10

Listen and choose the correct picture. There is one example.

Character: Hello, William. Did you visit Singapore on holiday?

William: Yes, I did. This country is very beautiful.

Character: Did you see a big sea lion statue there?

William: Yes. They call it the Merlion. It has the head of a lion and the body of a fish.

Character: That's so cool!

Can you see the example? Now you listen and choose the correct picture.

1.

Character: Who did you go with, William? Did you go there with your family?

William: No, just my mom and dad.

Character: What about your brother and sister?

William: They visited my grandparents.

2.

Character: How did you get there?

William: At first, my dad wanted to take a bus and then get on a train to get there.

Character: But it will be very slow.

William: Yes, you're right. So my dad decided we would get there by plane.

3.

Character: What did you do in Singapore?

William: I visited the Singapore Zoo.

Character: Cool! Did you see lots of animals there?

William: Of course! I saw many animals like tigers, elephants, birds and so on. I wanted to make friends with the monkeys, but they ran so fast.

Character: That sounds great.

4.

Character: How long did you stay there?

William: We stayed there for 1 week.

Character: Did you get home yesterday?

William: Yes. We started our trip on January 1st and got home on January 9th.

Character: That was a great trip, wasn't it?

William: Yes, we had a lot of fun.
