Nomophobia, short for "no-mobile-phone phobia," is a modern phenomenon that affects many people in today's digital age.

What is nomophobia? It is the irrational fear of being without one's mobile phone or being unable to use it. This condition can cause anxiety and distress, and it highlights the profound impact mobile devices have on our lives. The fear of losing or being separated from one's phone is a growing concern. Some common situations that trigger nomophobia include misplacing one's phone, running out of battery, or losing network signal. The fear intensifies when people imagine not having their phones to contact friends and family, access the internet, or use GPS for navigation.

Who easily suffers from nomophobia? Nomophobia is not limited to any age group and can affect individuals of all backgrounds. It often becomes evident when people experience panic or anxiety when they forget their phones at home or are unable to use them temporarily. Symptoms may include restlessness, rapid heartbeat, sweating, and a sense of insecurity.

The roots of nomophobia lie in the convenience and connectedness that mobile phones provide. These devices have become integral to our daily lives, serving as not just communication tools but also cameras, entertainment hubs, personal organizers, and more. This dependence on mobile phones can lead to a feeling of vulnerability when separated from them.

Question 23. Which of the following is not mentioned as nomophobia?

Read the following passage about education in Nepal and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the best answer to each of the following questions from 31 to 40.

Fashion in the 1960s reflected the cultural and political upheaval of the time. The hippie and counterculture movement gave rise to accessories like Pocahontas-style headbands and medallions worn around the neck. Hippies wore long, loosely fitting clothing, often in natural fabrics. Hemlines rose as Mary Quant popularized the miniskirt and hot pants in her lines for JC Penney. And mod fashion, with brightly colored space-age geometric patterns, shift dresses and colored tights became the mainstream. Both miniskirts and mod-shift dresses were worn with knee-high go-go boots.

[A] During the 1970s, the loose-fitting hippie clothes of the prior decade gave way to exotic fabrics and bell-bottom jeans for men and women. Hemlines continued to rise and hot pants continued their popularity, reflecting the flashy style of the decade. However, the 1970s also saw the popularity of a longer hemline, from mid-calf to ankle-length. [B] Women wore peasant-style clothing, especially blouses with off-the-shoulder necklines and lace trim, with their jeans or skirts. [C] Disco fashion emerged, featuring bright patterns and tightly fitting clothing meant to show off the body. Platform shoes elevated their wearer, male or female, anywhere from two to four inches or more. [D]

The 1980s saw another fashion upheaval. Angst-ridden punks wore Dr. Marten and steel-toed army boots, chains, tartan patterns, and bondage pants. Punks focused more on their hair during this period, dying, teasing and chopping their hair into asymmetric styles that seemed to defy gravity. Women—and men—experimented with heavy eyeliner in a variety of colors. Women wore neon colors, jelly shoes, tight jeans, leggings, leg warmers and oversized sweatshirts. Menswear-inspired looks also became popular for both sexes. Men wore ‘power suits,’ named so for their price, which made these suits a reflection of the wealth of the wearer. Women’s jackets featured big shoulder pads that made the shoulders appear higher and larger, similar to the male silhouette.

1990’s fashion was far more subdued than the garish, wild styles of the 1980s. Bands like Nirvana influenced the grunge look, which featured rock-concert tee shirts under plaid flannel shirts, jeans and long, greasy hair. Overalls were worn by both sexes, either with one or both shoulder straps unhooked. The punk style of the 1870s and 1980s evolved into the goth fashion trend, which featured black clothing, black boots and studded bracelets in the style of bands like Nine Inch Nails and Marilyn Manson.

Question 31. Which of the following does the passage mainly discuss?

- A. Fashion trends over four decades
- B. The greatest fashion models of all times

- A. lifted
- B. beautified
- C. supported
- D. enlightened

Question 35. Where does the following sentence best fit?

Embroidered clothing became especially popular with this trend.

- A. [A]
- B. [B]
- C. [C]
- D. [D]

Question 36. Which of the following best expresses the essential information in the underlined sentence in paragraph 3?

- A. Women and men were inspired to wear the popular clothing of the opposite sex.
- B. Both men and women liked to wear clothes that drew inspiration from menswear.
- C. Men had so great inspiration to the popular clothes of women that both sexes share the same kind of garments.
- D. Such was the popularity of menswear that both sexes were inspired to make themselves look exactly the same.

Question 37. Which of the following is best supported by the author of the passage?

- A. Fashion in each decade reflected major changes in culture and politics of that corresponding time period.
- B. The more developed society becomes, the more simplified fashion gets.
- C. The more modern the society is, the more similar to each other menswear and womenswear become.
- D. The more civilized society is, the more wilderness-oriented fashion styles become.

Question 38. Which of the following is NOT TRUE of “power suits”?

- A. They were worn by both genders.
- B. They were very costly.
- C. They represented the wealth of the wearers.
- D. Their price reflects the status of the wearers.

Question 39. What can be inferred from accessories like Pocahontas-style headbands?

- A. They were not popular at that time.
- B. They were not aligned with the cultural convention at the time.
- C. They were prepared by the Indian Americans.

D. They remained popular until the 1980s.

Question 40. Which of the following is TRUE according to the passage?

A. Fashion in the 1990's was generally gentler and quieter than that of the 1980's.

B. Fashion in the 1960's was dominated by unisex exotic fabrics and bell-bottom jeans.

C. Punks in the 1970s adopted asymmetric hair styles that seemed to defy gravity.

D. Punk in the 1870s and 1980s adopted goth fashion trend featuring black clothing, black boots.

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the questions

In today's world, we have different kinds of media available to us at all times. [I] However, did you know that the history of media actually goes back millennia? [II] By this definition, we can say with confidence that human beings created the first type of media around 64,000 years ago when we first began painting simplistic symbols on the walls of caves.[III] Since then, the more we have evolved, the more advanced our media have become.[IV]

According to experts, it was sometime around 3,400 BC when human beings first began utilising written language as a means of communication. For generations, apart from verbal communication, they had to write everything manually until the mid-1440s. It was Johannes Gutenberg who revolutionised media when he created an invention called the printing press. This marked the beginning of what we now call “mass media”: Gutenberg's innovative invention made print media like books, newspapers and magazines at a large scale and much information with a wider audience than ever before.

Several hundred years after the invention of the printing press, during the 19th century, we created cameras and later, the radio. The invention of the radio began the age of broadcast media, and the development of television swiftly followed it. This allowed many people to watch fascinating movies, programmes and documentaries, all of which remain popular today.

In the 2000s, we saw the rise of digital media. Now, we visit web pages, listen to podcasts, stream music and communicate on social media using our smartphones. We even use QR codes to share information instantly. We have come a long way, and so have the ways we communicate!

AVICII'S LIFE AFTER REHAB

Once he completed his month in rehab, Avicii seemed to have a new outlook on life. He was meditating regularly, reading about the collective unconscious, and got a puppy. After not performing for a long period of time, he returned to the stage in 2016 at Miami's Ultra Music Festival. It was announced a few days after this gig that he would not be performing live anymore. Avicii chose to not perform so that he could focus on bettering his mental health.

Despite appearing to have new-found stability, Avicii still struggled to deal with his mental health issues. While continuing to suppress the anxiety and depression that he frequently felt, Avicii also started to become disinterested in his music career. During this time, he was smoking and drinking on occasion which may have resulted in a resurgence of his disassociation feelings.

He told Tereza Kacerova, his girlfriend at the time, "What if everyone around me is just a projection in my mind? Sometimes I just think these things. About how nothing really matters."

Avicii started to focus heavily on meditation which he found to be helpful in clearing the "nonsense" from his mind. He believed that a deep form of meditation taught by Maharishi Mahesh Yogi was a way to exercise his brain which he had decided would lead to his happiness. Despite this form of meditation typically being done in 20 minute increments, Avicii would sometimes spend full days meditating in an attempt to reach enlightenment faster.

DEPENDENCE ON TECHNOLOGY: TIME FOR CHANGE!

[I] Los Angeles dancer, Brian Perez, was eating out with his friends one evening when suddenly everyone went quiet. [II] To his horror, he saw that the reason for this was that people were checking their phones. [III] What if they all put their gadgets in a pile in the middle of the table until they had finished the meal? [IV] If anyone picked up their phone, that person would have to pay the whole bill. And so, it is said, the game of

'phone stacking' was born.

The necessity for action like this highlights a major problem in today's society: our inability to disconnect from technology. But while Brian's idea deals with the obsession in a social context, measures also need to be taken at home. Some people drop their smartphones into a box the moment they arrive home, which gives them the chance to interact with the people they live with. The fact that the phone cannot be heard - it is on silent - nor seen - the flashing lights are hidden by the box - means that they are no longer tempted to use it.

A less drastic solution is to ban electronic devices at certain times of day when the whole family is likely to be together, for example at meal times. This can be hard for everyone, from teenagers desperate to text friends to parents unable to switch off from work. On a normal day, however, dinner takes less than an hour, and the benefits of exchanging opinions and anecdotes with the rest of the family certainly makes up for the time spent offline.

Taking a break from technology is one thing, but knowing when to turn off a device is another. Time seems to stand still in the virtual world, and before you know it, you find that it is three o'clock in the morning. This is where a digital curfew comes in handy, a set time when all devices must be put away. Evenings without technology are usually nice and peaceful and make a more agreeable end to the day. And then it's time for bed. One of the best ways of ensuring you can sleep at night is to ban electronic devices altogether from the bedroom. Lying next to a machine bursting with information is far from relaxing, and the sounds it emits during the night can easily wake you up. With technology out of the room, a line has been drawn between daytime and sleep time, which enables us to switch off ourselves and drift off to sleep.

Question 31. Where in paragraph I does the following sentence best fit?

Warning - Students Playing Truant

Though the national entrance exam for universities approaches, the number of students playing truant have (7) _____. This is concerning, because the Ministry of Education has changed the exam format. (8) _____ students seem unaware of the implications of their actions. As a solution, parents and teachers must ensure that students (9) _____ focused. (10) _____ changing exam format, students need to adapt. A significant (11) _____ of students are struggling with the new requirements. Finally, we must (12) _____ the importance of education. Instead of ignoring the issue, we must address it to prepare students for the challenges ahead.

Question 7: A. looked out B. turned off C. let down D. gone up

Question 8: A. Many B. Every C. Another D. Little

Question 9: A. maintain B. conserve C. remain D. preserve

Question 10: A. Instead of B. In spite of C. In light of D. In terms of

Question 11: A. amount B. quantity C. level D. number

Question 12: A. transport B. generate C. transmit D. communicate

Mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct arrangement of the sentence to make a meaningful paragraph/letter in each of the following questions.

Question 13:

a. Minh: She was really nervous about it, but I think she did quite well.

b. Anna: I hope she gets the score she needs for her university application.

c. Anna: Hi, Minh! How did your sister do on her IELTS exam?

A. c - b - a

B. c - a - b

C. a - c - b

D. b - c - a

Question 14:

- a. Minh: That's great to hear! What do you think he misses most from home?
- b. Lan: He has adapted well to the new environment and seems very happy.
- c. Minh: How has Manh been doing after two months in Taiwan?
- d. Minh: Have you spoken to him recently to check how he's adjusting?
- e. Lan: I think he misses his family and the food from Vietnam.

A. d - b - a - e - c      B. c - b - a - e - d      C. d - e - a - b - c      D. c - d - e - b - a

Question 15:

Dear students,

- a. As you may have heard, we will be switching to online classes for the next few weeks because of the severe storm.
- b. I hope everyone is doing well despite the weather conditions.
- c. I appreciate your understanding and flexibility during this time, and I'm confident we can make this work together.
- d. I know this might be an adjustment for some of you, but it's important to prioritize safety.
- e. Please ensure you have access to your online resources, and let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Best wishes,

Mrs. Hanh

Question 16:

- a. The quick and easy nature of platforms like TikTok and Instagram often leads to decreased attention spans, as viewers become accustomed to rapid changes and instant gratification.
- b. In conclusion, while short-form content can be entertaining and engaging, it is essential to be aware of its potential harms and to practice moderation in consumption to maintain a healthy balance in our lives.
- c. This type of media can also contribute to feelings of anxiety and inadequacy, as individuals may find themselves comparing their lives to the highlights showcased by others.
- d. In recent years, the rise of short-form content has become a significant trend, but its negative effects on viewers cannot be overlooked.
- e. Furthermore, the addictive nature of short-form content can lead to excessive screen time, negatively impacting physical health and social interactions.

A. b - a - c - d - e      B. b - d - c - a - e      C. d - a - c - e - b      D. a - d - c - e - b

Question 17:

- a. According to recent statistics, Vietnam ranks second in the world for coffee production, just behind Brazil, with an impressive output of over 1.5 million tons annually.
- b. Furthermore, the diverse climate and geography of Vietnam allow for the cultivation of various coffee varieties, including the renowned Arabica and Robusta beans, which are in high demand internationally.
- c. In conclusion, as Vietnam continues to thrive in the coffee market, it is crucial to support sustainable practices that ensure the industry's long-term viability and the well-being of those involved in it.
- d. This remarkable achievement not only highlights the country's agricultural capabilities but also underscores the importance of coffee as a key export product for the Vietnamese economy.
- e. Vietnam's coffee industry is a significant contributor to the global market, with the country being recognized as one of the top producers worldwide.

A. a - b - d - c - e      B. e - a - d - b - c      C. b - e - a - c - d      D. d - b - c - a - e

ChatGPT is an advanced language model developed by OpenAI, (18) _____. It utilizes deep learning techniques to generate human-like text responses based on the input it receives. With applications ranging from customer support to content creation, ChatGPT has transformed the way people interact with machines.

(19) _____, ChatGPT can provide users with detailed answers, explanations, and even creative content, depending on the prompts given to it. Its ability to understand context and nuances makes it an invaluable tool for various industries.

Moreover, designed to continuously learn and improve its performance, (20) _____. This feature ensures that it stays relevant and effective in understanding evolving language trends and user expectations. ChatGPT has gained popularity in various applications, (21) _____, enhancing user experience by providing instant responses. As users become more familiar with its capabilities, (22) _____, opening new avenues for innovation and creativity.

Question 18: A. whose utilization for a variety of applications has been available in the realm of text generation
B. that has fundamentally altered human interactions with artificial intelligence systems
C. which has been trained on an extensive range of datasets to facilitate natural language processing

D. having reached a significant milestone in the development of language processing technologies

Question 19: A. With the basic goal of enriching user interaction
B. Given its proficiency in understanding human language
C. By permitting users to pose open-ended queries
D. The primary objective of ChatGPT is to enhance engagement

Question 20: A. ChatGPT can deliver timely and accurate information to users as necessary
B. information can be delivered to users as timely and accurately as possible
C. users can have information delivered as timely and accurately as required
D. timely and accurate information to users as necessary can be delivered

Question 21: A. which empowers developers to tailor their functionality to meet specific user requirements
B. whose capabilities allow developers to create interactive applications employing its advanced features

C. that integrates effortlessly into applications, delivering users prompt and accurate replies
D. where various functionalities have been introduced to elevate its performance in real-world

situations

Question 22: A. users consistently express their satisfaction with the AI's capability to respond effectively
B. the feedback from diverse users illustrates significant enhancements in communication abilities
C. the demand for more advanced features and functionalities continues to grow
D. sophisticated algorithms have enabled the AI to process language accurately

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, D on your answer sheet to indicate the best answer to each of the following questions from 23 to 30.

If you're new to running, or new to marathons, you might be worried about or even fearful of the distance. And these feelings are completely understandable, given the fact that more than 42 kilometres is a very long way. However, more and more people are taking on this challenge every year, and for very good reasons.

Obviously, running such a long distance requires a lot of training, and the more you train, the more your endurance will be enhanced. And of course, as you become more physically active, your heart and muscles will be stronger, your blood circulation will improve, and you will most likely get in shape in no time. Additionally, there are also mental and social benefits such as feeling less stressed and more energized as well as having the chance to meet and establish meaningful relationships with other people.

If you think about it, running a marathon is also a chance for personal development. Everyone has at least one fear or insecurity, and for many people, completing a marathon race can seem like an extremely daunting or even impossible task. Of course, it's true that this is a big challenge that requires commitment and perseverance.

That being said, every time you step outside out of your comfort zone and accomplish something new, you will grow stronger and become more confident.

Sometimes, you can actually help many others when you run a marathon. Many runners now combine their marathon goal with the goal of helping others by participating in races that raise money for charity. Besides, running in such marathon races will most likely give you all the motivation you need to get through the exhausting 42-kilometer run. After all, it's quite difficult to quit when you know that you are giving help to people in need.

Question 23: According to the passage, all of the following are benefits of running a marathon EXCEPT _____.

- A. You will be able to improve your blood circulation and quickly get in shape.
- B. Your endurance will start to improve as you train harder and harder.
- C. Your muscles will be strengthened since you are more active.
- D. You will feel less stressed when meeting other people.

Question 24: The word "fearful" in paragraph 1 could be best replaced by _____.

- A. scary
- B. afraid
- C. anxious
- D. frightening

Question 25: The word "enhanced" in paragraph 2 is OPPOSITE in meaning to _____.

- A. preserved
- B. augmented
- C. weakened
- D. disseminated

Question 26: The word "this" in paragraph 3 refers to _____.

- A. personal development
- B. insecurity
- C. completing a marathon
- D. challenge

Question 27: Which of the following best paraphrases the underlined sentence in paragraph 3?

- A. Every time you leave your comfort zone and achieve something new, you will become stronger and more confident.
- B. Each time you move outside your comfort zone and accomplish something odd, you will grow more resilient and confident.
- C. Whenever you step outside your comfort zone and succeed in something different, you will feel a sense of superiority.
- D. Every time you venture beyond your comfort zone and do something unique, you will grow stronger and become less confident.

Question 28: Which of the following is TRUE according to the passage?

- A. If you want to run a marathon, you need to commit and persevere.
- B. When you complete a marathon, you will no longer have any fear.
- C. Most runners will not run marathons that do not raise money at all.
- D. You cannot complete a marathon if you do not want to help others.

Question 29: In which paragraph does the writer mention the physical benefits of running?

- A. Paragraph 1
- B. Paragraph 2
- C. Paragraph 3
- D. Paragraph 4

Question 30: In which paragraph does the writer discuss personal growth opportunities that come from running a marathon?

- A. Paragraph 1
- B. Paragraph 2
- C. Paragraph 3
- D. Paragraph 4

Read the following passage about and mark the letter A, B, C, D on your answer sheet to indicate the best answer to each of the following questions from 31 to 40.

Some people look at an equation and see a bunch of complicated numbers and symbols while others see beauty [I]. Now, thanks to a new tool created at Carnegie Mellon University, anyone can now translate the abstractions of mathematics into beautiful and instructive illustrations [II]. This exciting new tool is named Penrose after the mathematician Roger Penrose, who is famous for using diagrams and other drawings to communicate complicated mathematical ideas [III]. Penrose enables users to create diagrams simply by typing mathematical expressions and letting the software do the drawing [IV].

Unlike a graphing calculator, these aren't restricted to basic functions, but can be complex relationships from any area of mathematics. "Some mathematicians have a talent for drawing beautiful diagrams by hand, but they vanish as soon as the chalkboard is erased," said Keenan Crane, an assistant professor of computer science and robotics. "We want to make this expressive power available to anyone."

Diagrams are often underused in mathematical communication, since producing high-quality illustrations is beyond the skill of many researchers and requires a great deal of time and effort. Penrose addresses these challenges by letting diagram-drawing experts turn their knowledge about creating diagrams into computer codes so that other users can access this capability using familiar mathematical language and a computer. "We started off by asking: 'How do people translate mathematical ideas into pictures in their head?'" said Katherine Ye, a Ph.D. student in the Computer Science Department who is involved in the development of Penrose. "The secret sauce of our system is to empower people to easily 'explain' this translation process to the computer, so the computer can do all the hard work of actually making the picture."

Once the computer learns how the user wants to see a mathematical object visualized – a vector represented by a little arrow, for instance, or a point represented as a dot – it uses these rules to draw several candidate diagrams. Users can then select and edit the diagrams they want from a gallery of possibilities. A special, simple-to-learn programming language was also developed so that they can easily convey the ideas in their minds to the Penrose system, Crane said. "Mathematicians can get very picky about notations," he explained. "We let them define whatever notation they want, so they can express themselves naturally."

The researchers will present Penrose at the SIGGRAPH 2020 Conference on Computer Graphics and Interactive Techniques, which will be held this July. "Our vision is to be able to dust off an old math textbook from the library, drop it into the computer and get a beautifully illustrated book - that way more people understand," Crane said, noting that Penrose is a first step toward this goal.

Question 31: Where in paragraph 1 does the following sentence best fit?

For many, the elegance of mathematical concepts often goes unnoticed amidst the complexity.

- A. [I]                                      B. [II]                                      C. [III]                                      D. [IV]

Question 32: The word "restricted" in paragraph 2 is OPPOSITE in meaning to _____.

- A. contained                              B. expanded                              C. confined                              D. enclosed

Question 33: The phrase "secret sauce" in paragraph 3 could be best replaced by _____.

- A. unexpected benefit              B. mysterious feature              C. unnatural ability              D. special element

Question 34: According to the passage, which of the following is NOT mentioned as a feature or benefit of the Penrose tool?

- A. It allows users to create diagrams from mathematical expressions.
B. It can produce high-quality illustrations without requiring advanced drawing skills.
C. It enables users to communicate mathematical ideas using a programming language.
D. It can automatically generate solutions to complex mathematical problems.

Question 35: The word "they" in paragraph 4 refers to _____.

- A. users                                      B. diagrams                                      C. possibilities                                      D. ideas

Question 36: Which of the following best summarizes paragraph 3?

- A. Penrose allows users to create high-quality diagrams quickly without needing artistic skills.
B. Diagrams in mathematics are often underused due to the time required to create them.
C. Penrose enables users to translate mathematical ideas into diagrams using expert knowledge and computer codes.
D. Katherine Ye discusses the challenges mathematicians face when trying to visualize complex ideas.

Question 37: Which of the following is NOT TRUE according to the passage?

- A. Mathematical diagrams that are drawn by hand on chalkboards are not long-lasting.
B. Diagrams are usually not widely used to illustrate or communicate mathematical ideas.

C. Penrose uses common mathematical rules to draw diagrams for a mathematical object.

D. Penrose's developers want to make math easier to understand by using illustrations.

Question 38: Which of the following best paraphrases the underlined sentence in paragraph 4?

A. Users can browse and alter the diagrams they like from a variety of choices.

B. Users can create and adjust the diagrams they desire from a selection of examples.

C. Users can choose and modify the diagrams they prefer from a collection of options.

D. Users can view and customize the diagrams they wish to use from an assortment of images.

Question 39: Which of the following can be inferred from the passage?

A. Hand-drawn diagrams are not as beautiful and easy to understand as digital diagrams.

B. In general, mathematicians are not very good at remembering and defining notations.

C. How a mathematical object should be visualized varies from person to person.

D. Almost all people consider traditional math textbooks to be extremely boring.

Question 40: Which of the following best summarizes the passage?

A. The development of Penrose by Carnegie Mellon University aims to replace traditional graphing calculators with a tool that can only produce basic mathematical functions.

B. Penrose enables mathematicians to draw by hand and provides them with a programming language to express their ideas naturally.

C. Penrose is a new tool that allows users to create complex mathematical diagrams easily, enhancing mathematical communication and understanding.

D. The researchers at Carnegie Mellon University are focusing on the history of mathematical diagrams and their importance in education.

Choosing a career is a significant decision that can impact one's life in many ways. (18) _____. To make an informed decision, it is essential to consider various factors, such as personal interests, skills, and values. One of the most important factors to consider is personal interests. (19) _____. By pursuing a career that aligns with your passions, you are more likely to be motivated and satisfied.

Another important factor is skills and abilities. (20) _____. Identifying your strengths and weaknesses can help you choose a career path that suits your skills and talents.

In addition to personal interests and skills, it is crucial to consider the job market and industry trends. (21) _____. Researching different career paths and staying up-to-date on industry developments can help you make informed decisions.

To make the most of your career journey, it is essential to be proactive and take steps to develop your skills and network with professionals in your desired field. (22) _____. By continuously learning and adapting, you can increase your chances of success.

Question 18. A. However, choosing a career can be a daunting task.

B. It is important to choose a high-paying career.

C. Most people find their dream job early in life.

D. A college degree is necessary for success.

Question 19. A. A fulfilling career should provide financial security.

B. A successful career requires hard work and dedication.

C. Your career should align with your passions and values.

D. It is important to choose a career that is in high demand.

Question 20. A. Your education level is the most important factor in choosing a career.

B. Soft skills are less important than hard skills.

C. Self-awareness is key to making informed career decisions.

D. It is important to have a clear career plan from a young age.

Question 21. A. The job market is stable and predictable.

B. The job market is constantly changing.

C. It is important to choose a career that is recession-proof.

D. Most jobs require specialized skills.

Question 22. A. Networking is not important for career success.

B. It is important to focus on one's own strengths and weaknesses.

C. Lifelong learning is essential for career advancement.

D. It is important to choose a career that offers job security.

Read the following passage about wildlife conservation and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the best answer to each of the following questions from 23 to 30.

Wildlife conservation is a crucial endeavor that aims to protect animal species and their habitats. This effort is essential for maintaining biodiversity and ensuring the health of our ecosystems. Human activities such as deforestation, pollution, and climate change are some of the primary threats to wildlife. Conservation initiatives strive to mitigate these impacts through various strategies.

One significant aspect of wildlife conservation is the establishment of protected areas. National parks, wildlife reserves, and marine protected areas are created to provide safe havens for endangered species. These areas not only protect wildlife but also offer opportunities for scientific research and eco-tourism, which can benefit local economies.

Another important approach is the reintroduction of species into their natural habitats. This method has been successful in bringing several species back from the brink of extinction. Conservationists carefully monitor and support these reintroduced populations to ensure their survival.

Education and awareness campaigns play a pivotal role in wildlife conservation as well. By educating the public about the importance of biodiversity and the threats facing wildlife, these campaigns foster a sense of responsibility and encourage community involvement in conservation efforts.

Technological advancements are also aiding conservation efforts. Innovations such as satellite tracking, DNA analysis, and drone surveillance help researchers gather critical data and monitor wildlife populations more effectively. These tools enable more informed decision-making and efficient conservation strategies.

Question 23. Which of the following is NOT mentioned as a threat to wildlife?

- A. Deforestation                      B. Pollution                      C. Climate change                      D. Urbanization

Question 24. The word "establishment" in paragraph 2 is closest in meaning to:

- A. creation                      B. destruction                      C. preservation                      D. alteration

Question 25. The word "their" in paragraph 1 refers to:

- A. natural habitats                      B. reintroduced populations
C. conservationists                      D. species

Question 26. The word "pivotal" in paragraph 4 could be best replaced by:

- A. trivial                      B. crucial                      C. secondary                      D. irrelevant

Question 27. Which of the following best paraphrases the underlined sentence in paragraph 5?

- A. Technological advancements hinder conservation efforts.
B. There is no alternative to technology in saving wildlife.
C. Technology could be another way to aid conservation efforts.
D. Technology should be the only focus in wildlife conservation.

Question 28. Which of the following is TRUE according to the passage?

- A. Only national parks can protect endangered species.
B. Reintroduction of species has never been successful.
C. Education campaigns foster community involvement.
D. Technological advancements are irrelevant to conservation.

Question 29. In which paragraph does the writer mention a present causal relationship?

- A. Paragraph 1                      B. Paragraph 2                      C. Paragraph 3                      D. Paragraph 4

Question 30. In which paragraph does the writer explore modern methods for maintaining endangered species?

- A. Paragraph 1                      B. Paragraph 2                      C. Paragraph 3                      D. Paragraph 5

Read the following passage about wildlife conservation and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the best answer to each of the following questions from 31 to 40.

[I] Wildlife conservation refers to the efforts made to protect and preserve wild animal species and their habitats. [II] It is crucial for maintaining biodiversity, which plays a vital role in ecosystem stability and health (Smith & Jones, 2018). [III] Unfortunately, many species are threatened due to habitat destruction, poaching, and climate change, making conservation efforts more urgent than ever. [IV]

One of the primary reasons for wildlife conservation is the preservation of biodiversity. A diverse range of species contributes to ecosystem services, such as pollination, water purification, and climate regulation. The loss of a single species can disrupt these services and lead to ecological imbalances. For instance, the decline of pollinators like bees has serious implications for food production and agriculture (Global Biodiversity Outlook, 2020).

Moreover, wildlife conservation has significant economic benefits. Many communities depend on ecotourism, which relies on healthy wildlife populations and intact ecosystems. According to a study by the World Wildlife Fund (WWF), ecotourism can generate billions of dollars in revenue, providing jobs and supporting local economies (WWF, 2021). Protecting wildlife not only safeguards natural resources but also creates sustainable livelihoods for local populations.

However, effective wildlife conservation requires a collaborative approach. Governments, non-governmental organizations, and local communities must work together to implement policies and strategies that promote conservation efforts. Community-based conservation initiatives, where local people actively participate in protecting their natural resources, have shown promising results. These initiatives empower communities and ensure that conservation efforts are tailored to local needs and contexts (Bennett & Dearden, 2014).

Question 31. Where in paragraph I does the following sentence best fit?

Conservation measures are essential for the survival of many endangered species.

- A. [I]                      B. [II]                      C. [III]                      D. [IV]

Question 32. The phrase "ecosystem services" in paragraph 2 could be best replaced by ____.

- A. benefits provided by the economy
- B. functions that ecosystems perform for humanity
- C. services offered by wildlife organizations
- D. economic services provided by local communities

Question 33. The word "their" in paragraph 4 refers to ____.

- A. ecosystem stability
- B. biodiversity
- C. local people
- D. ecological imbalance

Question 34. According to paragraph 2, which of the following is NOT a reason for wildlife conservation?

- A. To maintain biodiversity
- B. To ensure food production
- C. To promote industrial development
- D. To support ecosystem stability

Question 35. Which of the following best summarizes paragraph 3?

- A. Ecotourism negatively affects local economies.
- B. Wildlife conservation primarily benefits large corporations.
- C. Protecting wildlife can create economic opportunities for local communities.
- D. Wildlife conservation is not economically beneficial.

Question 36. The word "collaborative" in paragraph 4 is CLOSEST in meaning to ____.

- A. independent
- B. cooperative
- C. competitive
- D. isolated

Question 37. Which of the following is TRUE according to the passage?

- A. Only governments are responsible for wildlife conservation.
- B. Ecotourism has no connection to wildlife conservation efforts.
- C. Community involvement is essential for successful conservation initiatives.
- D. Wildlife conservation is solely focused on endangered species.

Question 38. Which of the following best paraphrases the underlined sentence in paragraph 4?

- A. Collaborative efforts lead to better conservation policies.
- B. Local communities must manage their resources without external help.
- C. Wildlife conservation can only succeed with the involvement of different groups.
- D. Conservation initiatives do not require local participation.

Question 39. Which of the following can be inferred from the passage?

- A. Wildlife conservation is primarily a global issue that does not affect local communities.
- B. The economic benefits of conservation are negligible compared to its ecological impact.
- C. Without wildlife conservation, both biodiversity and local economies may suffer.
- D. Habitat destruction has little impact on wildlife populations.

Question 40. Which of the following best summarizes the passage?

- A. Wildlife conservation is essential for protecting species and habitats, maintaining biodiversity, and providing economic benefits through ecotourism, requiring collaborative efforts for effectiveness.
- B. The primary focus of wildlife conservation is on endangered species and their immediate habitats.
- C. Wildlife conservation is not necessary as most species are thriving in their environments.
- D. Ecotourism is the only reason for wildlife conservation efforts globally.

ChatGPT is an advanced language model developed by OpenAI, (18) _____. It utilizes deep learning techniques to generate human-like text responses based on the input it receives. With applications ranging from customer support to content creation, ChatGPT has transformed the way people interact with machines.

(19) _____, ChatGPT can provide users with detailed answers, explanations, and even creative content, depending on the prompts given to it. Its ability to understand context and nuances makes it an invaluable tool for various industries.

Moreover, designed to continuously learn and improve its performance, (20) _____. This feature ensures that it stays relevant and effective in understanding evolving language trends and user expectations. ChatGPT has gained popularity in various applications, (21) _____, enhancing user experience by providing instant responses. As users become more familiar with its capabilities, (22) _____, opening new avenues for innovation and creativity.

Question 18: A. whose utilization for a variety of applications has been available in the realm of text generation
B. that has fundamentally altered human interactions with artificial intelligence systems
C. which has been trained on an extensive range of datasets to facilitate natural language processing

D. having reached a significant milestone in the development of language processing technologies

Question 19: A. With the basic goal of enriching user interaction
B. Given its proficiency in understanding human language
C. By permitting users to pose open-ended queries
D. The primary objective of ChatGPT is to enhance engagement

Question 20: A. ChatGPT can deliver timely and accurate information to users as necessary
B. information can be delivered to users as timely and accurately as possible
C. users can have information delivered as timely and accurately as required
D. timely and accurate information to users as necessary can be delivered

Question 21: A. which empowers developers to tailor their functionality to meet specific user requirements
B. whose capabilities allow developers to create interactive applications employing its advanced features

C. that integrates effortlessly into applications, delivering users prompt and accurate replies
D. where various functionalities have been introduced to elevate its performance in real-world

situations

Question 22: A. users consistently express their satisfaction with the AI's capability to respond effectively
B. the feedback from diverse users illustrates significant enhancements in communication abilities
C. the demand for more advanced features and functionalities continues to grow

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, D on your answer sheet to indicate the best answer to each of the following questions from 23 to 30.

If you're new to running, or new to marathons, you might be worried about or even fearful of the distance. And these feelings are completely understandable, given the fact that more than 42 kilometres is a very long way. However, more and more people are taking on this challenge every year, and for very good reasons.

Obviously, running such a long distance requires a lot of training, and the more you train, the more your endurance will be enhanced. And of course, as you become more physically active, your heart and muscles will be stronger, your blood circulation will improve, and you will most likely get in shape in no time. Additionally, there are also mental and social benefits such as feeling less stressed and more energized as well as having the chance to meet and establish meaningful relationships with other people.

If you think about it, running a marathon is also a chance for personal development. Everyone has at least one fear or insecurity, and for many people, completing a marathon race can seem like an extremely daunting or even impossible task. Of course, it's true that this is a big challenge that requires commitment and perseverance.

That being said, every time you step outside out of your comfort zone and accomplish something new, you will grow stronger and become more confident.

Sometimes, you can actually help many others when you run a marathon. Many runners now combine their marathon goal with the goal of helping others by participating in races that raise money for charity. Besides, running in such marathon races will most likely give you all the motivation you need to get through the exhausting 42-kilometer run. After all, it's quite difficult to quit when you know that you are giving help to people in need.

Question 23: According to the passage, all of the following are benefits of running a marathon EXCEPT _____.

- A. You will be able to improve your blood circulation and quickly get in shape.
- B. Your endurance will start to improve as you train harder and harder.
- C. Your muscles will be strengthened since you are more active.

D. You will feel less stressed when meeting other people.

Question 24: The word "fearful" in paragraph 1 could be best replaced by _____.

- A. scary
- B. afraid
- C. anxious
- D. frightening

Question 25: The word "enhanced" in paragraph 2 is OPPOSITE in meaning to _____.

- A. preserved
- B. augmented
- C. weakened
- D. disseminated

Question 26: The word "this" in paragraph 3 refers to _____.

- A. personal development
- B. insecurity
- C. completing a marathon
- D. challenge

Question 27: Which of the following best paraphrases the underlined sentence in paragraph 3?

A. Every time you leave your comfort zone and achieve something new, you will become stronger and more confident.

B. Each time you move outside your comfort zone and accomplish something odd, you will grow more resilient and confident.

C. Whenever you step outside your comfort zone and succeed in something different, you will feel a sense of superiority.

D. Every time you venture beyond your comfort zone and do something unique, you will grow stronger and become less confident.

Question 28: Which of the following is TRUE according to the passage?

A. If you want to run a marathon, you need to commit and persevere.

B. When you complete a marathon, you will no longer have any fear.

C. Most runners will not run marathons that do not raise money at all.

D. You cannot complete a marathon if you do not want to help others.

Question 29: In which paragraph does the writer mention the physical benefits of running?

- A. Paragraph 1
- B. Paragraph 2
- C. Paragraph 3
- D. Paragraph 4

Question 30: In which paragraph does the writer discuss personal growth opportunities that come from running a marathon?

- A. Paragraph 1
- B. Paragraph 2
- C. Paragraph 3
- D. Paragraph 4

Read the following passage about and mark the letter A, B, C, D on your answer sheet to indicate the best answer to each of the following questions from 31 to 40.

Some people look at an equation and see a bunch of complicated numbers and symbols while others see beauty [I]. Now, thanks to a new tool created at Carnegie Mellon University, anyone can now translate the abstractions of mathematics into beautiful and instructive illustrations [II]. This exciting new tool is named Penrose after the mathematician Roger Penrose, who is famous for using diagrams and other drawings to communicate complicated mathematical ideas [III]. Penrose enables users to create diagrams simply by typing mathematical expressions and letting the software do the drawing [IV].

Unlike a graphing calculator, these aren't restricted to basic functions, but can be complex relationships from any area of mathematics. "Some mathematicians have a talent for drawing beautiful diagrams by hand, but they vanish as soon as the chalkboard is erased," said Keenan Crane, an assistant professor of computer science and robotics. "We want to make this expressive power available to anyone."

Diagrams are often underused in mathematical communication, since producing high-quality illustrations is beyond the skill of many researchers and requires a great deal of time and effort. Penrose addresses these challenges by letting diagram-drawing experts turn their knowledge about creating diagrams into computer codes so that other users can access this capability using familiar mathematical language and a computer. "We started off by asking: 'How do people translate mathematical ideas into pictures in their head?'" said Katherine Ye, a Ph.D. student in the Computer Science Department who is involved in the development of Penrose. "The secret sauce of our system is to empower people to easily 'explain' this translation process to the computer, so the computer can do all the hard work of actually making the picture."

Once the computer learns how the user wants to see a mathematical object visualized – a vector represented by a little arrow, for instance, or a point represented as a dot – it uses these rules to draw several candidate diagrams. Users can then select and edit the diagrams they want from a gallery of possibilities. A special, simple-to-learn programming language was also developed so that they can easily convey the ideas in their minds to the Penrose system, Crane said. "Mathematicians can get very picky about notations," he explained. "We let them define whatever notation they want, so they can express themselves naturally."

The researchers will present Penrose at the SIGGRAPH 2020 Conference on Computer Graphics and Interactive Techniques, which will be held this July. "Our vision is to be able to dust off an old math textbook from the library, drop it into the computer and get a beautifully illustrated book - that way more people understand," Crane said, noting that Penrose is a first step toward this goal.

Read the following passage about wildlife conservation and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the best answer to each of the following questions from 23 to 30.

Wildlife conservation is a crucial endeavor that aims to protect animal species and their habitats. This effort is essential for maintaining biodiversity and ensuring the health of our ecosystems. Human activities such as deforestation, pollution, and climate change are some of the primary threats to wildlife. Conservation initiatives strive to mitigate these impacts through various strategies.

One significant aspect of wildlife conservation is the establishment of protected areas. National parks, wildlife reserves, and marine protected areas are created to provide safe havens for endangered species. These areas not only protect wildlife but also offer opportunities for scientific research and eco-tourism, which can benefit local economies.

Another important approach is the reintroduction of species into their natural habitats. This method has been successful in bringing several species back from the brink of extinction. Conservationists carefully monitor and support these reintroduced populations to ensure their survival.

Education and awareness campaigns play a pivotal role in wildlife conservation as well. By educating the public about the importance of biodiversity and the threats facing wildlife, these campaigns foster a sense of responsibility and encourage community involvement in conservation efforts.

Technological advancements are also aiding conservation efforts. Innovations such as satellite tracking, DNA analysis, and drone surveillance help researchers gather critical data and monitor wildlife populations more effectively. These tools enable more informed decision-making and efficient conservation strategies.

Question 23. Which of the following is NOT mentioned as a threat to wildlife?

- A. Deforestation                      B. Pollution                      C. Climate change                      D. Urbanization

Question 24. The word "establishment" in paragraph 2 is closest in meaning to:

- A. creation                      B. destruction                      C. preservation                      D. alteration

Question 25. The word "their" in paragraph 1 refers to:

- A. natural habitats                      B. reintroduced populations
C. conservationists                      D. species

Question 26. The word "pivotal" in paragraph 4 could be best replaced by:

- A. trivial                      B. crucial                      C. secondary                      D. irrelevant

Question 27. Which of the following best paraphrases the underlined sentence in paragraph 5?

- A. Technological advancements hinder conservation efforts.
B. There is no alternative to technology in saving wildlife.
C. Technology could be another way to aid conservation efforts.
D. Technology should be the only focus in wildlife conservation.

Question 28. Which of the following is TRUE according to the passage?

- A. Only national parks can protect endangered species.
B. Reintroduction of species has never been successful.
C. Education campaigns foster community involvement.
D. Technological advancements are irrelevant to conservation.

Question 29. In which paragraph does the writer mention a present causal relationship?

- A. Paragraph 1                      B. Paragraph 2                      C. Paragraph 3                      D. Paragraph 4

Question 30. In which paragraph does the writer explore modern methods for maintaining endangered species?

- A. Paragraph 1                      B. Paragraph 2                      C. Paragraph 3                      D. Paragraph 5

Read the following passage about wildlife conservation and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the best answer to each of the following questions from 31 to 40.

[I] Wildlife conservation refers to the efforts made to protect and preserve wild animal species and their habitats. [II] It is crucial for maintaining biodiversity, which plays a vital role in ecosystem stability and health (Smith & Jones, 2018). [III] Unfortunately, many species are threatened due to habitat destruction, poaching, and climate change, making conservation efforts more urgent than ever. [IV]

One of the primary reasons for wildlife conservation is the preservation of biodiversity. A diverse range of species contributes to ecosystem services, such as pollination, water purification, and climate regulation. The loss of a single species can disrupt these services and lead to ecological imbalances. For instance, the decline of pollinators like bees has serious implications for food production and agriculture (Global Biodiversity Outlook, 2020). Moreover, wildlife conservation has significant economic benefits. Many communities depend on ecotourism, which relies on healthy wildlife populations and intact ecosystems. According to a study by the World Wildlife Fund (WWF), ecotourism can generate billions of dollars in revenue, providing jobs and supporting local economies (WWF, 2021). Protecting wildlife not only safeguards natural resources but also creates sustainable livelihoods for local populations.

However, effective wildlife conservation requires a collaborative approach. Governments, non-governmental organizations, and local communities must work together to implement policies and strategies that promote conservation efforts. Community-based conservation initiatives, where local people actively participate in protecting their natural resources, have shown promising results. These initiatives empower communities and ensure that conservation efforts are tailored to local needs and contexts (Bennett & Dearden, 2014).

C. Wildlife conservation can only succeed with the involvement of different groups.
D. Conservation initiatives do not require local participation.

Question 39. Which of the following can be inferred from the passage?

- A. Wildlife conservation is primarily a global issue that does not affect local communities.
B. The economic benefits of conservation are negligible compared to its ecological impact.
C. Without wildlife conservation, both biodiversity and local economies may suffer.
D. Habitat destruction has little impact on wildlife populations.

Question 40. Which of the following best summarizes the passage?

- A. Wildlife conservation is essential for protecting species and habitats, maintaining biodiversity, and providing economic benefits through ecotourism, requiring collaborative efforts for effectiveness.
B. The primary focus of wildlife conservation is on endangered species and their immediate habitats.
C. Wildlife conservation is not necessary as most species are thriving in their environments.
D. Ecotourism is the only reason for wildlife conservation efforts globally.
