Key Points to Remember on Traffic Rules in England

Below are some key points you need to remember when you travel in England.

The general rule of keeping left: When you are driving on a road which is a two-way road, you need to allow the traffic from the opposite direction to pass from your right side. Similarly, all the vehicles in your lane also need to be giving the right side to overtake.

When you turn: When you are taking a turn, always keep to your turning side, meaning when turning right, get to the right side of the road and do the same when turning to the left.

Do not park: Surely, you want to park your vehicle as fast as you can, but that doesn't mean you leave your car on the side of the road. Find the parking near your building and park it there. If parking is not available, make sure you are not parking near the bus stand, school, or hospital entrance.

Do not drive: When you are going on a one-way road, you cannot reverse your vehicle.

Use indicators: When you are changing lanes, overtaking the other car or taking a turn always use turn signals or indicators to make follow drivers know about your plan.

The Silver Glove

#The Silver Bore

Daniel Jones

If you've ever seen a pirate film in the past, you can save your money. This is one of the most predictable films I have seen this year. The plot is totally unbelievable and the script is something amateurish out of filmmaker college. There is some nice cinematography, but the Hawaiian scenery is not enough to save this film. Great support acting from the Frenchman Thierry Montpasse as the evil Captain Scar.

#Pirates At the Speed Of Light

Angela Moore

I just love this fast-moving pirate thriller. The story moves at dizzying speed from one terrifying battle scene to the next, and you really feel as if you are on the ships with these evil thieves and smugglers. Chief pirate, British actor Colin Williams, is given all the best, wittiest lines, and the film has its share of laughs as well as scary moments. The storm scene at the beginning leaves you both exhausted and terrified.
