My experience at Summer school

by Francoise Armand, aged 13

The summer school was different from my normal school in France. The classes were a lot smaller. We only had sixteen pupils in the class in Oxford, but at my school in France there are over thirty five (2)..... It was also easier for the teacher to control the class, which meant that we wasted less time.

The lessons were a lot different to the kind of lessons I'm used to. In my normal school, we have a course book and we spend our lessons doing exercises from it(3) .....At summer school, though, we did lots of different activities, such as games, songs and role plays. Because of the variety, I rarely got bored.

Overnight, we all stayed with different families in the city. I stayed with a couple and their teenage daughter(4)..... I was forced to speak English! I had to learn the words for things, or to go without them! At the time, I didn't think I learned very much in England. But when I returned to my normal school, I noticed the improvement (5) ..... I had got better by having fun and communicating with English people. All in all, summer school was a useful experience and I recommend it to all teenagers!

II. Read the passage and choose the best option. Cirle A, B, C or D (10 pts)

Drawing is often seen as a special skill, and it is (2) ......that some people seem to draw perfect pictures without any effort. Yet drawing, like writing, can be (3) .....;you can draw accurately if you work really hard at it. Drawing is first (4) .....all about looking carefully. It sounds easy to say that all you (5).....to do is look at things, but it really is that simple. The best way to draw a familiar (6)..... is to imagine that you are looking at it for the first (7).....

Nowaday, there are (8) ..... courses and materials available than ever before (9)..... means that you can experiment to improve your skills. The only (10) ..... is your imagination.

BOOKS IN YOUR LIFE

It is often said that books are always a good friend and reading is an active mental process. Unlike TV, books make you use your brain. By reading, you think more and become smarter. Reading improves concentration and focus. Reading books takes brain power. It requires you to focus on what you are reading for long periods. Unlike magazines, Internet posts or e-emails might contain small pieces of information. Books tell the whole story. Since you must concentrate in order to read, you will get better at concentration. Many studies show if you do not use your memory; you lose it. Reading helps you stretch your memory muscles. Reading requires remembering details, facts and figures and in literature, plot lines, themes and characters.

Reading is a good way to improve your vocabulary. Do you remember that when you were at elementary school you learned how to infer the meaning of one word by reading the context of the other words in the sentence? While reading books, especially challenging ones, you will find yourself exposed to many new words.

Reading is a fundamental skill builder. Every good course has a matching book to go with it. Why? Because books help clarify difficult subjects. Books provide information that goes deeper than just classroom discussions By reading more books you become better informed and more of an expert on the topics you read about. This expertise translates into higher self-esteem. Since you are so well-read, people look to you for answers. Your feelings about yourself can only get better.

Books give you knowledge of other cultures and places. The more information you have got, the richer your knowledge is. Books can expand your horizons by letting you see what other cities and countries have to offer before you visit them.
