My name is Quanzhou and I'm from China. My favorite time of the year is Chinese New Year. People decorate houses and streets with lanterns and flowers many days before the New Year festival. Everything is red and gold, because they're the lucky colors. People give children lucky money in red envelopes, and they also give friends mandarin oranges for good luck. The New Year's Eve dinner is called Reunion Dinner. People in the family sit together, talk and enjoy traditional food. One special dish is Nian Gao. People make Nian Gao with sugar and rice. We also eat fish, chicken and dumplings.

After dinner, we watch the New Year music performance on TV. At midnight, we can see fireworks in the sky. The colors are amazing. There are parades and lion dances in the streets, too.

Good morning and welcome to our first day at Lincoln School. My name's Susan Brown and I'm your teacher for this year. I'd like you to listen carefully to this important information. You all must be here in the classroom at 8:45 in the morning. I'll check your names and the first lesson begins at 9 o'clock. In the morning, you are all together in this classroom for English, Science and Math. Lunch break is at 12 o'clock. Students can have lunch in the canteen. You can have sandwiches, soup and orange juice. After lunch, please get back to your classroom to study art and music. If you love performing, you can join the drama club on Saturdays. To join the club, sign up on the noticeboard. And finally, there's a puppet show this Sunday. Don't forget to come. I hope you'll enjoy it. I think that's all for now. Do you have any questions?
